

CASE STUDY-12

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

Long ago there was a slave in a country. His name was Androcles. He committed an offence, so he was punished. Out of fear he ran away and took shelter in a cave. In that cave lived a big lion. A thorn was stuck into his left foot, so he felt great pain and could not walk properly. He came limping towards Androcles. Androcles saw the thorn and boldly drew it out. The lion got rid of pain and felt relieved. Later Androcles was caught and brought to Rome. There he was asked to fight against a hungry lion. It was the same lion from whose paw, Androcles had drawn out the thorn. The lion at once recognized him and instead of attacking him quietly lay down at his feet.
