

Effective-Communication

Communication-skills are essential in every sphere of human interaction. The ability to communicate is vital to the success of any endeavour. The main objective of this session is to promote effective communication skills to cope with day to day life as well as society.

- to help students interact effectively
- to increase confidence levels of students
- to develop social-skills and etiquette in students
- to help them identify their own communication pattern and assess how it adds
- or obstructs their communication

Answer the following questions:

a. What was difficult about the activity?

b. What communication skills did you use?

c. What happens if you don't use clear communication skills and the other person misunderstands your message?

d. How do you think these skills would help you with more difficult discussions, such as with your family?

Key points:

- Effective communication is the most important component for a successful life.
- Successful communications skill can solve complex problems.
- Through successful communication one can understand or explain situations in a better way.

Send the softcopy in the following mail id: durgabari841@gmail.com