

Increasing Your Vocabulary – Part 2

Hello Students !!

In the following page you will find the excerpts from Grammar book.

You need to take out your own book, and tick the ones that you find here!!

You already have the first part with you. And this is the next part. So go through these two PDFs and prepare yourself !!

Read them, understand them, and utilize them in your own sentences!!!

All the Best !!

56. To be fed up — to be sick of: I am fed up with your false promises.

59. To make up one's mind — to decide: I have made up my mind to learn guitar.

60. To pull one's leg — to play a joke with one: Don't take it seriously; he was simply pulling your leg.

62. To take place — to happen: The meeting will take place next Monday.

67. For a while — for a short time: Let us rest for a while before we resume our work.

73. In the long run — ultimately, finally: If you are sincere and honest in your work, it will pay you in the long run.

77. On behalf of — Two students met the Principal on behalf of the class.

78. Instead of — Instead of supporting my plan, they started criticising it.

79. In spite of — In spite of being very ill throughout the year, she topped her class.

80. In order to — with the purpose of: They took a house near the office in order to save commuting time.

