

The Kite

Reference to the context

1. "Climbs to the crest
of a gust and pulls,
Then seems to rest
as wind falls."

- Where are the above lines taken from?
- What climbs to the crest?
- When does it seem to rest?
- Write the meaning of the word 'Crest'?

Ans-

- The above lines are taken from the poem 'The Kite' by Harry Behn.
- The kite climbs to the crest.
- It seems to rest when the wind falls.
- 'Crest' means mountain top or the highest point.

2."How bright on the blue
Is a kite when it's new!
With a dive and dip
It snaps its tail"

- Name the poem and its poet.
- What does the word 'blue' refer to?
- Write the antonym of the word 'bright'?

Ans-

- The name of the poem is 'The kite' and the poet is Harry Behn.
- The word 'blue' refers to the sky.
- The antonym of 'bright' is dull.

3. "Then soars like a ship
with only a sail"

- a. What is the source of the given extract?
- b. What soars like a ship?
- c. How does the poet compare the kite to a ship?

Ans-

- a. The source of the given extract is the poem 'The kite'.
- b. The kite soars like ship.
- c. The poet compares the kite to a ship by saying that the kite soars like a ship with a sail.

Note: This chapter ends here.