

- Develop the following outlines into a story.

1. A wood-cutter cutting wood near a river..... axe fell into water.....Started weeping.....God came with a golden axe.....wood-cutter refused.....God returned with silver one.....wood-cutter refused.....God came with the iron axe.....wood-cutter glad.....God gifted all the axes to the wood-cutter.

2. A lion was very proud..... he killed many animals of the forest..... one day he was sleeping in his den..... a rat came out of its hole and played here and there..... it jumped on the body of the big lion..... the lion caught hold of it to kill it..... but the lion kindly left it the rat thanked him..... the lion was caught in a trap..... the rat came to his help..... it cut the rope of the trap..... the lion was free..... even a small creature can help.