Read the real life cases from newspaper cutting given below and answer the questions. Send the softcopy in the following mail id: durgabari841@gmail.com

exploration 1-A.1

Real-life case from the News

THE TIMES OF INDIA   Jan 19, 2016

A 39-year-old civic employee lay helplessly on the railway tracks at Halisahar station after a train severed both his legs on Monday morning.

Hundreds of people including GRP and RPF personnel and commuters watched, yet no one raised a finger to help.

After 20 minutes, another train crushed him to death.

Source: http://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/city/kolkata/Man-run-over-

A similar incident happened in Agra, where a man was run over by a train – twice! The locals kept watching without helping him.

Source:
http://indiatoday.intoday.in/video/man-run-over-twice-by-trains-on-delhi-agra-line-dies/1/172781.html

Question 1: Why this happened?

_____
_____
_____
_____

Question 2: Which possibilities need to be awakened in these bystanders? Explain

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

exploration 1-B

Real-life case from the News

Here is an example of what happens when people begin to expand themselves –

MUMBAI MIRROR   Sep 21, 2015

17-year-old builds a bamboo bridge so that children of this Mumbai slum can reach school safely

Children of Sathe Nagar, had to walk across a 100 feet long stretch of an open and dirty canal, which has also claimed a few lives. The parents were reluctant to send their children to school.

Witnessing this, Eshan Balbale felt the immediate need for a bridge over the canal.

But building a concrete bridge would take a long time and he would need permission from the government.

Eshan decided to make a bamboo bridge which would be light yet strong, and could provide basic safety to the kids as they travel every day.

Source: http://www.mumbaimirror.com/2015-heroes/providing-care/Eshan-Balbale-Bridging-a-muddy-gap/articleshow/49040263.cms

Question 1: Which possibilities the boy awakened? Explain

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____