.....

Solution-

Rahul's Presence of Mind

Rahul was alone at home. Suddenly the phone rang. He hesitated for a moment but then picked up the receiver. Though he said 'Hello', there was no response from the other side. He repeated 'Hello' 'Hello'... but still no one replied from the other end. The phone rang again but this time somebody asked if his father was at home. When Rahul asked who was calling, the caller refused to tell about him and kept on asking his parents' whereabouts. When Rahul refused to answer, the line was disconnected. After some time, the doorbell rang. As Rahul peeped through the keyhole, he found a tall man with a beard, outside the door. Rahul got scared and quickly ran towards the phone and called up his father's friend who lived in their colony and told him about the incident. His uncle asked him not to worry as he would reach soon. He quickly collected some other men from the neighborhood, and with his pet dog, reached Rahul's home. The tall man was looking for a way to get into the house when the dog of Rahul's uncle held his leg with its teeth the man panicked and tried to run away but was overpowered by all the men of the colony. Soon, the police reached Rahul's home and his parents also returned and thanked the neighbors. Everyone praised Rahul's presence of mind which saved his life.

Answer.

Bad Company

Once a boy fell into bad company. He began to waste time. It disturbed his father. He tried his best to set him on the right path, but all his efforts proved in vain.

One day the father thought Of a plan. He bought some fresh apples from the market. He bought one rotten apple also. Then he said to his son, “Put these apples in the cupboard.” The boy did so. Next day, the father asked his son to bring all the apples. The boy opened the cupboard and was shocked to see that all the apples were rotten. The father said, “One rotten apple has spoiled all the good ones. Bad friends are like rotten apples. They will spoil you”. The boy understood everything. He immediately gave up bad company and became a good boy again.

Moral : Better alone than in a bad company.
