

Solutions of Test 1

Class: VIII

Subject: English

Note: The students are requested to go through the answer key and check your score accordingly. You are also requested to keep an account of the marks which you are getting in these tests in your English copy. Mention the date of the exam and the total marks achieved in each of the test. You are expected to be honest and fair while taking the test and evaluating it.

1. Answer the following questions:

Value Points

- a. Macavity's power of levitation- i.e. floating in the air without any support.
- b. Ginger cat- tall and thin- eyes are sunken in- brow is deeply lined with thought- head is dome shaped- uncombed whiskers- dusty coat.
- c. Macavity has hidden schemes or plans- he doesn't leave any evidence- nobody can catch him.
- d. Scotland Yard- Headquarters of the London police- Flying Squad- a group of police or soldiers ready to move into action quickly.

2. Rearrange (Answers):

- a. For many generations people have relied on dogs/ People have relied on dogs for many generations.
- b. They have been used for hunting and companionship.
- c. A dog's nose and ears are very sensitive.

Note: Dear Students, you must be wondering how to check your own copies properly and put marks. Here are some instructions for you which will help you to evaluate your own copies properly.

1. Be honest and true to yourself. Take the test first and then check the answers from the given answer keys.
2. In grammar, give full marks only if your answer matches with the answer key. Otherwise, put a zero.
3. In literature, your answers must have most of the value points given in the answer key, if not all, to get full marks. Otherwise, deduct half marks. If the answer is totally wrong then put a zero.
4. If you commit more than one spelling error in a single answer, deduct half marks for it.
5. Do not cheat yourself by implementing unfair means. Keep an eye everyday on the upcoming videos and PDF provided by us. The date of your next examination will be mentioned beforehand in any one of the upcoming PDF files.