

Run (Poem)

Word Meanings:

1. raindrops- (plural) a single drop of rainwater that has just fallen or is falling from the sky.
2. 'neath (beneath)- below or underneath
3. breeze- a light gentle wind
4. hillside- the side of a hill
5. meadow- a piece of land covered or cultivated with grass
6. merry- joy

Question and answers:

1. What does the poem tell us to do?

The poem tells us to run to the country all through the day and be merry.

2. Write about the places where the poet wants us to run.

The poet wants us to run down the hillside, up the lane and through the meadow.

3. Write few lines about your time spending on a playground.

4. Write down the rhyming verbs from the poem 'RUN'.

Reference to Context:

1. "AWAY from the city

And into the sun,

Out to the country,

Run! Run! Run!"

- a. From where are the above lines taken from?

The above lines are taken from the poem 'Run' written by Mary Daunt.

- b. Write the word meaning of 'country'.

country- an area of land.

- c. What is the inner meaning of the sentence 'And into the sun'?

The sentence means the children to go out to the sun.

- d. Write out the verb from the following lines.

"Run! Run! Run!"

2. "Run in the raindrops!

Run 'neath the trees!

Run little races

With each little breeze!"

a. Who must run beneath the trees?

The children must run beneath the trees.

b. word meaning of raindrops.

raindrops- a single drop of rainwater that has just fallen or is falling from the sky.

c. Which type of noun is 'tree'.

tree- common noun

d. From where are the above lines taken from?

The above lines are taken from the poem 'Run' written by Mary Daunt.

3. "Run and be merry

All through the day!

Run to the country,

Away! Away"

a. Who is the poetess of the poem?

Mary Daunt is the poetess of the poem.

b. What does the poetess ask you to feel?

The poetess asks the children to be happy.

c. From where are the above lines taken from?

The above lines are taken from the poem 'Run' written by Mary Daunt.

d. What is the meaning of the word 'away'?

away- in another direction