

ANSWERS TO THE WORKSHEET ON COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

Use much/many appropriately.

- a. There is too much milk in the glass.
- b. How many members do you have in your family?
- c. There wasn't much traffic on the road.
- d. How many participants do we have?
- e. There are many children playing in the park.

Use little/few appropriately.

- a. The poor boy has little education.
- b. Marx gave us few apples from his orchard.
- c. London gets little sunshine in the winter.
- d. There are few shows that I want to watch on T.V.
- e. Are you hungry? There's a little food left in the fridge.

Identify whether the following nouns are countable or uncountable.

- a. Mineral Water- uncountable
- b. Students- countable
- c. Cherries- countable
- d. Oxygen- uncountable
- e. Furniture- uncountable
- f. Rain- uncountable
- g. Teeth- countable
- h. Fishermen- countable
- i. Ketchup- uncountable
- j. Powder- uncountable

WORKSHEET ON GENDER

State whether the following nouns are masculine, feminine, common or neuter gender.

- a. Milk man
- b. Priestess
- c. Smartphone
- d. Mango tree
- e. Chief minister
- f. Guitar
- g. Goddess
- h. Typist
- i. Great grandfather
- j. Manager

Write the opposite gender of the following nouns.

- a. Son- in – law
- b. Landlord
- c. Doe
- d. Sir
- e. Bachelor
- f. Actress
- g. Horse
- h. Grand nephew
- i. Postmaster
- j. Ram