Comprehension

Read the passage carefully and answer the given below question:

A shepherd boy was in charge of looking after a flock of sheep. Every morning, he took the sheep to a meadow near his village. Every evening, he brought the sheep back home. All day long, he watched the sheep. One day, the shepherd boy began to complain. "I am bored". There is nothing to do but watch these silly sheep eat grass. Suddenly he had an idea and he thought it would be fun to fool the villagers. He would pretend that a wolf was attacking the flock of sheep.
