

THE LAZY FROG

EXERCISE

1. What did the frog do all day?

A- The frog spent his day by lying around lazily.

2. What is Fred's reaction when his mother calls him?

A- When Fred's mother asks him to work, he does not even care to move and pretends to be deaf.

3. When do we call someone 'hard-of-hearing'?

A- When someone is unable to hear properly, they can be called 'hard-of-hearing'.

4. What is Fred expected to do when a lady frog passes by?

A- When a lady frog passes by, Fred is expected to bow her and help her on her way.

5. Reference to context.

“Come in and help!”

a. Where is the above quoted line taken from?

- The above quoted line is taken from the poem ‘the Lazy Frog’.

b. Who is the speaker of the above quoted line?

- Fred’s mother is the speaker of the above quoted line.

c. Who has been asked to help?

- Fred has been asked to help.