

BEAUTY

E-Yeh-Shure

Words to Remember

Corn- a kind of grain (mazie)

Harvest- cutting and gathering of crops

Sighing- soft, exhaling sound

Chanting- singing

Earnest- with complete dedication

Deeds- actions

Repeat- happen again and again

Questions/answers:

1. Can beauty be temporary? Give examples to support your answer.

Yes, beauty can be temporary. For instance tree is beautiful when it is green and laden with fruits, but it loses its beauty when it becomes leafless in autumn.

2. Can you name some beautiful things seen or heard?

Yes, I have seen the beautiful things like chirping birds, whistling trees, laughing children and vast sea shore.

3. What is beauty? Where can, in the poet's opinion, beauty be seen, heard and experienced?

It is difficult to describe or define beauty. But beauty attracts everybody and is appreciated all over the world. Where does beauty lie in? Well, it is visible in the sunlight, the trees, the birds, the crops and the harvesters who dance merrily.

Beauty is heard in the night when the wind blows or rain falls or some singer sings. But the real beauty lies in noble actions and thoughts at all times whether working or resting.

4. Where does beauty lie?
5. When is the beauty heard?
6. How do you define beauty?
7. What beauty lies within us?

Reference to context:

1. Beauty is seen

In the sunlight,

The trees, the birds,

Corn growing and people working

Or dancing for their harvest.

a. Name the poet and the poem.

Name of the poem is Beauty and the poet is E-Yeh-Shure.

b. Why do people dance for their harvest?

They dance because they are pleased to harvest their crops.

c. How do people become beautiful?

By working in fields.

2. Beauty is in yourself.

Good deeds, happy thoughts

That repeat themselves

In your dreams,

In your work,

And even in your rest.

a. What does the poet want to say through the poem?

Beauty can be seen, heard and practiced

b. When can the rest be beautiful?

It is spent in thinking good thoughts.

c. Which one of the following is not associated with the real beauty?

Quarrelsome nature