

CASE STUDY-7

Hamlet, the prince of Denmark was once the happiest young man in the country, but a great trouble came upon his life. Suddenly his father died in a mysterious way. So, Hamlet became very sad and upset. Hamlet was told that the old king who was wise and good, had died from the bite of a snake when he was asleep one afternoon in the garden. Soon, after his death, Claudius, brother of the dead king and uncle of Hamlet, married the queen and was now the king. Hamlet did not like the fact that his mother married again so quickly and the more he thought about the affair, the sadder he became.

Answer the following questions with the help of the above passage:

1. Once, the happiest young man in Denmark was _____.

- a. Claudius b. Hamlet c. King

2. Hamlet's father was a _____ king.

- a. very sad b. wise c. cruel

3. Hamlet's father died in a _____ way.

- a. mysterious b. normal c. toxic

4. After his father's death Hamlet became very _____.

- a. upset b. sad c. both a & b

5. Claudius was Hamlet's _____.

- a. son b. uncle c. brother

6. Find the adverb from the following options.

- a. mysterious b. quickly c. wise

7. Comparative degree of 'sad' is _____

- a. sadder b. more sadder c. most saddest

8. Antonym of 'alive' is _____

a. affair b. dead c. fact

9. Find the synonym of 'strange' from the given options

a. fact b. again c. mysterious

10. It was told to Hamlet that his father died from the _____

a. bite of lizard b. bite of snake c. bite of insect